The Chairman,
State Bank of India,
Corporate Centre,
Mumbai

Respected Sir,

At the very outset, we wish you and the State Bank of India a happy and prosperous new year!

We take this opportunity to introduce ourselves as the mouthpiece of the retirees of seven erstwhile Associate Banks of State Bank of India which were merged with the parent Organisation between August 2008 and April 2017. We represent over 50,000 retirees of the e- Associate Banks who consider it a privilege to have been involved over 30-40 years in nation building through their sheer hard work in all corners of India braving extreme weather and poor service conditions. We have been drawing paltry pension amounts as there is no revision of pension for almost a quarter century whereas almost over ten times the wages of serving employees stand upgraded. Superannuation Benefits including Pension, REMBS and Medical Insurance of eAssociate Bank Retirees are entirely different from what is made available to Pensioners of State Bank of India. There are retirees who are not Pensioners. Our Pension Scheme, medical and other Provident Fund Based Schemes are entirely different when compare to those obtaining in State Bank of India.

After the acquisition of five E Associate Banks we have been facing very many hardships and differentiation like withholding of existing welfare measures, inadequate medical facilities etc. We are in a state of confusion as to the process of approaching Management to present our concerns as the earlier arrangements have become redundant on account of merger of E Associate Banks with the parent organization. Thinking that the individual Retiree Organization to approach Management separately appears not proper we have organized ourselves into a coordination body known by name " Coordination of E Associate Banks' Retirees' Organizations" to represent all Retirees' Organizations of E Associate Banks. In this context, we earnestly request you to kindly arrange to appoint a nodal authority at the Corporate Office to whom we can present our concerns and can interact on issues lying within the administrative authority of the Bank.

Thanking You,

Yours faithfully,

Convener
